

What am I Thinking?

I've officially gone mad. Just a day after our game creation challenge, and I'm participating on another one. This time it's the annual Game Chef, now hosted by Jonathan Walton. The format is a bit different this year, requiring each participant to start a new blog of their game design endeavour. Mine is <http://altgame.wordpress.com/>.

The great thing about this year's Game Chef is that they have a set of deadlines from which you can choose one or more: week, two weeks, a month and a year. I don't really have a lot of free time in my hands but I'm still planning to hit the week or two week deadline. From then on I'm gonna see if it is worth it aiming for the farther deadlines too.
